

UTAH HIGH SCHOOL FUTURE OF JOURNALISM AWARDS

2nd Annual Futures Awards

Introduction:

The Futures Awards are designed to recognize excellent journalism by Utah high school students. Sponsored by the Utah College Media Alliance in collaboration with the Utah Press Association, the contest is judged by Utah's college journalists, journalism professors and professional journalists. The Futures encourage high school students who show an interest in journalism to pursue their media interests into college.

Categories:

For video production, submit a permanent link to 3 complete broadcast packages; one from October 2017, one from February 2018, and one from a month of your choice.

Best High School Media Program - One award will be made in each division, based on total points accumulated by each high school. Points will be awarded as follows: 1st place - 6 points, 2nd place - 4 points, 3rd place - 3 points. The high school with the highest score in each division will receive a cash award to be used by the school's media organization.

Coverage Cup - New this year, this category is exclusively available to the schools who attend the High School Media Symposium. Schools compete against each other by covering a special-interest topic of their choosing all year long. More info can be found here. Details on submitting work for this category will be announced to schools participating in this category (must have attended Symposium in November 2017 to qualify).

Judging:

Judging will be based on overall excellence. Criteria include:

- Accuracy and completeness
- Enterprise and ingenuity
- Adherence to high journalistic standards
- Significance and effectiveness
- Extenuating circumstances
- Clarity, insight and respect for the audience
- Creative use of the medium's unique capabilities
- Adherence to the SPJ Code of Ethics
- Judges will weigh the resources available to the student when selecting the winners.

One winner and up to two finalists will be chosen in each category unless the judges find that the entries do not meet the overall standard of excellence required. No honorable mentions will be awarded. A category may have up to two finalists and no winner if entries do not meet the requirements.

Divisions:

6A, 5A, & 4A Schools

3A, 2A, & 1A Schools

Eligibility:

- The contest is open to anyone who is enrolled in a Utah high school during the 2017 - 2018 academic year.
- All entries must have been published or broadcast during the 2017-2018 academic year.
 - As long as the work is uncompensated, the entry may have been published or broadcast in any media outlet, not just high school media. Any entry found to have been compensated work will be disqualified.
- Unpublished manuscripts, classroom exercises and unaired news broadcasts do not qualify. Any work found to be unpublished, unaired or a classroom exercise will be disqualified.
 - A classroom exercise is defined as work assigned for a grade or fulfillment of a course requirement and is not eligible for an award unless it was also published outside of class in the high school newspaper, high school broadcast stations or website.
- Advisers may make entries on behalf of their students.

General Rules:

- Entries not originally published or broadcast in English should include English subtitles or an English translation.
- Entries that are incomplete or entered in the wrong division or category will be disqualified. Entrants will be notified as soon as possible of incomplete or incorrect entries in order to allow for correction if possible. Any entries not corrected within 3 days of notification will be disqualified.
- Entries with invalid or broken links will be disqualified.
- Winning entries may be reproduced or posted on the Utah Press Association website and college media websites for educational or other purposes.
- Each contestant may enter as many categories as desired. There is no limit on the number of entries a school or news outlet may enter.
- Each entry must be accompanied by a $5 entry fee. It is recommended that each school should pursue funding for award entries from their high school administration. If that doesn't work or you need any assistance in paying for entry fees, please contact Jake Sorensen at jake.sorensen@utah.edu to find out about applying for entry fee grants. A limited number are available.
- Entries should be PDFs of print pages, permanent links of online-only work or uploads or links to video work. Indicate which item on a page, website or newscast should be judged if more than one item appears in the file.
- Be sure the name of each student who worked on the entry is listed on the entry form and spelled correctly.
- Up to four individuals may be named on a team entry; otherwise, the entry must be submitted in the name of the newspaper, magazine, station or online news site.
- Work should be submitted in the correct classification the high school competes in. Division A consists of high schools competing in 6A, 5A, and 4A; Division B consists of schools competing in 3A, 2A, and 1A.

Deadlines:

Entries for the Utah High School Future of Journalism Contest are being accepted until April 18, 2018.

Award Presentation:

Winners will be recognized during an awards ceremony held in Salt Lake City at the University of Utah on May 19, 2018. If desired, UCMA will also work with schools to recognize winners during their end-of-year awards assemblies.
