2021 AMA Advertising Contest Essentials

Group Publications:

In instances in which more than one newspaper under one ownership cooperates in its news and advertising, a single piece of work can be entered by only one newspaper in the largest category. Entries for affiliates of active member papers that enter in Division E should only enter work unique to their product. For example if a story, photo, or ad is entered under the active member paper, it is not eligible to be entered in Division E under the affiliate member paper.

Entry Prep:

All entries should be submitted as a cropped PDF, JPG or URLs, and a lower quality PDF of the whole page to include the date of publication and paper. Check the rules for more details. Some categories require hard copies to be mailed as well as entered online. Note: Entries for Advertising Sweepstakes are required to be from specific date ranges. Check the rules for details. PDF's should be print quality resolution, but please try to optimize the file to the smallest size. Ads for entry should be clearly marked so it is obvious what to judge.

Web Categories:

If linking to a part of your website that is behind your paywall or password-protected area, make sure to include a user name and password for the judges that will work in the months of March - May. Judges may disqualify your entry if work samples are inaccessible. Simply enter your paywall info into the Title/Cutline box or create a PDF with the access info and upload when you submit your entry.

Judging information:

Judging will be handled by newspaper professionals from another state. When possible, panelists from dailies will judge daily entries and those from weeklies will judge weekly entries. Judges reserve the right to disqualify entries submitted in an inappropriate category or that do not otherwise follow the criteria described herein. Decisions of the judges are final, however the APA Better Newspaper Contest Committee reserves the right to revoke any award found to be in violation of the contest rules. Judges will be asked to include brief, useful and constructive comments for each first place award. Comments will be published in a contest publication and distributed to all member newspapers.

Awards:

Newspapers will receive awards at the APA Summer Convention. Not all winners will be announced prior to the banquet. Newspapers will be notified if they are among the winners in the unannounced categories.

PDF Instructions

- Each entry must be less than 100 MB, but smaller files are better.
- Eliminate extra pages. Upload only the page(s) on which the entry is located.
- For multiple-page entries, combine all pages, into one PDF.
- If you don't have Adobe Acrobat or can't figure out what to do, call APA for help.

Extract pages from multi-page PDFs:

- If your entry is part of a multi-page PDF, open the PDF with Adobe Acrobat and save it with a new name.
- Open the new PDF, go to "Document" menu, select "Extract Pages" and follow the directions.
- Eliminate all pages that are NOT part of your entry. In the "Pages" panel, you can rearrange the PDFs in the order you want the judges to see them.
- Save the new PDF.

Combine multiple PDFs into one:

- Each entry should consist of one single PDF file whenever possible.
- If a category calls for more than one piece, combine the pieces into a single file for uploading to the contest platform. Using Adobe Acrobat, open the first PDF that you want in your entry and save it with a new name.
- Open the new PDF, go to the "Document" menu and choose "Insert Pages." Navigate to the next PDF that you want in the entry and select it.
- Continue until you have inserted all of your pages. In the "Pages" panel, you can rearrange the PDFs in the order you want the judges to see them. Save the new PDF.

- Within Acrobat, be sure to mark your entry with an arrow or box so judges will know what to judge.
- This is especially important if you have more than one ad per page.

Make PDF files smaller:

- For printing, most newspaper PDFs include high-resolution images. However, contest entries will be viewed and judged on computer screens at low resolution and in RGB color.
- Changing the resolution and changing the CMYK color mode to RGB are the two most effective ways to reduce file size without sacrificing the screen viewing quality.
- Winning entries will be displayed in a printed tab, so do not reduce below average print quality.

BASIC ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

<http://www.newspapercontest.com/Alabama>

The Association Code is: AlabamaPress.

Step 1 — Login to <http://www.newspapercontest.com/Alabama> . Complete rules for both advertising and editorial contests are available online. Some browsers, such as Safari, will open the rules in a new window; others will require you to download the PDF file to your computer.

Step 2 — Click on the “Register” tab.

Step 3— Register on the contest website using your email address. The Association Code is: AlabamaPress. You will receive a confirmation email, which you will need to complete your registration. Note: You will need separate email addresses for the Editorial, Advertising and Magazine contests.

Step 4 — On this page, select your newspaper name. A lot of information will auto-fill. If you do not see your paper listed or if the information is incorrect, please call APA at (205) 871-7737. Your division will be selected for you based on your circulation. Fill in the preparer’s name.

Step 5 — Select “Editorial” or “Advertising” to begin submitting entries. As you create entries, this field will not change unless you select to change it. All required fields are marked with a red asterisk.

Step 6 — Select the contest category. These are drop-down menus for your convenience. This field will clear each time you save an entry, so you must select a class for each new entry. When you select the class, special instructions will appear below it.

Step 7 — If necessary, provide an explanation of your entry. The explanation/cutline box is limited to 3,000 characters. It’s a good idea to write your explanation in another program, such as Word, and copy/paste into the explanation box. If a URL is required, fill in the URL box; there is no need to type “http://.”

Step 8 —Please name/save your entry (the uploaded file) as the title of your story, ad or photograph. i.e. “APA Wins Contest” or “Sunset on the bay” If you wish, also include the name/number of the category you are entering.

Step 9 — Include the name of the person or people who should be credited for any award. This is generally the writer, reporter, photographer, graphic artist, cartoonist, etc. It is not necessarily the name of the person submitting the entry nor the person picking up the award at the convention.

Step 10 — Add your file or files. You can drag and drop files or use the “Add files” button to navigate your files. Generally, files should be in PDF format except photos, which should be in high-resolution JPG format. Other files and URLs may be acceptable as noted in the special instructions. Upload as many files as are necessary to complete your entry but refer to the special instructions for any limitations. Mail-in categories MUST also be entered into the online system. Follow the instructions for each category listed in the Contest Rules and Regulations.

Step 11 — When you have completed your submission, click the “Save” button. If you click the “Back to list” button, you will lose the entry you just completed. After clicking “Save,” you will be directed back to the list of your entries. You may not change an entry, but you may delete an entry and resubmit it.

Step 12 — To submit another entry, click “Add New Entry.” As long as you have not logged out of the system, your newspaper name will still be in place and you can simply start at Step 6 again. You may log out and log back in later to continue adding entries. You will need to select your newspaper name each time you log in.

Step 13 — If you are finished submitting entries, please review the list. When you are finished uploading all your entries, click the “Billing” button on the list page. This will take you to a page where the entry fee is automatically generated. You will have the option of paying online with a credit card via PayPal (you do not have to have a PayPal account to use this feature), phoning in a credit card payment or mailing in payment. Once payment is made, we will disable your access to the page. If you find out later that you need access, you would need to call the APA office at (205) 871-7737 or register using a different email address.
