Better Newspapers Contest Call for Entries

CONTEST ENTRY RULES

DEADLINE: JANUARY 17, 2020

A. Entries must be submitted online at:

www.newspapercontest.com/southdakota or hard-copy entries (where noted) postmarked by 5 p.m. Central Time on Friday, January 17, 2020.

1. Follow the on-screen instructions and register using your information. Please Note: If you've registered in the past, you will need to register again. Username/Passwords are not saved from previous years.
2. Only one email address per newspaper is allowed. If you are submitting for multiple publications, you will need to use a different email address for each publication. Best practice: Editor/Publisher should create a username and password and share with staff.
3. You will be asked for an "Association Code."
The case sensitive code is: SDContest
4. Please be sure to read all online rules for each category. If you need clarification of the rules, contact Sandy DeBeer at 800-658-3697 or by email at sandy@sdna.com.

B. All entries must be unaltered in any way.

1. The date each entry was published MUST appear on the tearsheet or be noted on the screenshot. This is required for both online and hard-copy entries.
2. Entries should be PDF files showing the full page tearsheet (publication name and date line must be showing).
3. Online entries should indicate date of publication or posting.
4. Please make sure your entry is obvious on the page. Best practice: Match the name of the entry to the headline on the page.
5. All material must have been published between January 1, 2019 and December 31, 2019.

C. Fees

1. Each newspaper will be allowed up to five (5) entries for a flat $25.00 fee. Additional entries will be $4.50 each.
2. No refunds will be issued. Payment is not accepted online. Please submit payment to SDNA by mail or call with credit card ($50 minimum, Visa, Mastercard).

D. Circulation Divisions

1. The contest has five editorial circulation categories and two advertising circulation divisions. See page 4 for full circulation division breakdown.

E. Individual entries limited to one per person or team in each category. Be sure the name of the reporter or photographer is listed on the entry form. This is especially important for articles where no byline appears. NO article or photograph may be entered in more than one category.

F. When more than one item is included in an entry (such as news series), please clearly label the entries in order that they should be read (e.g. news series 1 of 3, news series 2 of 3, news series 3 of 3). All files should be uploaded under ONE entry.

G. For ADVERTISING entries that include website promotions, include active URL in the comments section of your entry.

H. For reporters, photographers or advertising designers or salespeople who work for more than one newspaper, only enter one entry per category regardless of changes in circulation group or newspaper. (e.g. in individual categories, a writer can only enter one news story, one news series, etc., regardless of newspaper or circulation group.)

I. An entry will be disqualified if:

- the entry is not within the required date as indicated in the rules
 - payment is not made prior to the judging
 - specific rules as outlined in each class are not followed
- Newspapers will not be notified of entry disqualifications.

J. On the entry submission, please include the name(s) of the person(s) who should be credited for the work. This is not necessarily the person who submitted the entry or is picking up the award. It should be the writer/reporter/photographer.

K. Entering the contest gives the SDNA permission to publish the entries in print or online.

L. Once the contest has been judged, an award may be revoked if it becomes known that the entry was submitted in an incorrect division or altered since original publication date. Entries must be submitted exactly as they were published.

M. Any situation arising that is not covered by these rules will be settled by the contest judges or SDNA. The decision of the judges/SDNA is final.

N. JUDGING

Judging for the 2019 Better Newspapers Contest will be provided by members of the North Dakota Newspaper Association.

O. AWARDS

Certificates will be awarded for first, second and third place. First-place plaques will be available upon request. There will be no honorable mention awards. Judges will be instructed to award a first, second and third place winner in all contest classes for which at least four entries were submitted; if a contest has three or fewer entries, the entries will be combined with the closest circulation division available. Awards will be presented during the Annual Convention April 23-25, 2020 in Deadwood, SD.

Contest Entry Eligibility

Eligibility

Any SDNA active (newspaper) member in good standing may enter the contests. Contest period runs from January 1 to December 31, 2019. Entries must be from content published (in-print or online) by SDNA members in 2019 and cannot be reprints of previous editions.

All entries must be created, produced or sold by staff members of the entering newspaper or by personnel under contract with or compensated by the entering newspaper.

Entries not produced by a member(s) of the newspaper staff must meet all of the following criteria to be eligible:

- The newspaper paid to have the content created;
- The content was created as the result of a contract directly between the newspaper and the freelancer (no third party was involved in the transaction);
- The newspaper had substantial editorial and content control (syndicated or wire service material is not eligible for submission).

Entry Classes

There will be two daily entry classes and three weekly entry classes for the editorial contest and one daily entry class and three weekly entry classes for the advertising contest. Each entry class is determined by the newspaper's circulation and the circulation divisions set up by the SDNA Board. The 2019 South Dakota Newspaper Directory will be used as the determinant of each paper's circulation.

Collaborative entries appearing in more than one paid or unpaid editorial publication must be entered in what would be the contest class of the larger (or largest) publication.

However, a non-collaborative photo or story produced by a staff member(s) of one newspaper may be entered in that newspaper's class, even if it is also published in another newspaper. Entries from auxiliary publications of an active member — special sections labeled as part of the newspaper, niche publications — will be accepted if the auxiliary publication is distributed with the member newspaper on a full run basis.

Eligibility Examples & Frequently Asked Questions

Q: The Tribune contracts directly with Sue Ann, a freelancer, to write a weekly column for the newspaper. Her column is not syndicated to other papers. Under their contractual arrangement, The Tribune has editorial control over the column — including whether the column is published and how it is edited. Can The Tribune enter Sue Ann's columns in the contest?

A: Yes. Under the contest criteria, The Tribune a) paid to have the content created; b) the content was created as the result of a contract directly between the newspaper and the freelancer; and c) the newspaper has substantial editorial and content control.

Q: The Daily News contracts to carry commentary written by a regional writer whose columns are sold to several Midwestern newspapers. The writer self-syndicates, contracting with other client newspapers. The only editing the Daily News performs is occasionally condensing it for space. Can The Daily News enter this writer's columns in the Excellence in Editorial Writing contest?

A: No. Clearly, The Daily News does not have substantial editorial and content control in this example. Further, this content is syndicated to several newspapers.

A: No. In this case, The Reporter contracted with a third party (the SDNA) and not directly with the photographer.

Q: The night after a tornado skirts the edge of town, a reader emails The Chronicle an amazing photo he took of the twister. The reader is happy to see his photo on the front page plus the $20 gift card sent by a grateful editor. May The Chronicle enter the image in the SDNA Contest?

A: No. While the paper did compensate the reader, it was after the fact; the newspaper did not pay to have the content created. The photo was not created as the result of a contract directly with the paper. It may not be entered.

Q: Related to the previous example: The person taking the tornado photo is a freelance photographer who regularly shoots sports and features for the The Chronicle on a contractual basis. The editor decides which images to print, how they are cropped, etc. May The Chronicle enter the image in the SDNA Contest?

A: Yes. The Chronicle and photographer had a current contractual arrangement, the image was not sold to multiple papers and the newspaper had complete control over how the photo was edited and displayed.

Q: An advertising agency purchases space in several newspapers for its banking client. Can The Gazette, one of the newspapers that received the advertising, enter the ad in any advertising category?

A: No. The Gazette did not have substantial content control in this example.

Q: Can a reporter/designer be entered in the same category under their own name and as part of a team?

A: Yes, it is possible that the same person could enter, for example, three ads under their own name, and also be included with a team that enters three ads under the team name. (Please see each category for special stipulations.)

Q: Are there any exceptions to the deadline?

A: No, all contest entries must be post-marked by the deadline. All hand-delivered entries must be in our office by the deadline. The online entry portal will close at 5 p.m. Central time on Jan. 17, 2020.

Be kind to the judges.

Organize, prepare and upload your contest entries with care.

Please submit all entries online unless otherwise noted.

Categories that should be mailed to SDNA as hard copy include:

- General Excellence
- Best Typography & Design
- Best Special Issue (Newsprint)
- Best Specialty Publication (stand-alone magazine, glossy, etc.)
- Public Service
- Best FOI Project
- Outstanding Young Journalist

How will electronic files be submitted?

You'll submit electronic entries by uploading the files from within the online contest registration system at newspapercontest.com/southdakota.

Entries must be submitted as full-page (PDF) tearsheets or whole issues. Publication name/date line must be visible on the page. All entries must be unaltered in any way.

Requirements:

1. Only submit pages that contain entry-related content. If your entry is on just one page, there is no need to submit an entire section or entire issue. But, if your submission appears on multiple pages (for example, the story jumps to another page) be sure to include all necessary pages, making sure to combine the first and jump page into a single PDF file.

Give each resulting file a clearly descriptive name. Best Practice: File names should be labeled as "Sports Photo_Aurora Gazette_James Reynold.pdf" or "Best Use of Color_Aurora Gazette_James Reynold", etc.

2. Many categories require more than one item per entry. For example, a single entry in the "Best News Series" category allows up to six (6) stories.

The individual story and jump page, if needed, should be included on a single PDF. Then, clearly labeled in the order to be read.

Best Practice: File names should be labeled as "News Series_Aurora Gazette_James Reynold_1 of 2.pdf" and "News Series_Aurora Gazette_James Reynold_2 of 2", and so on.

3. Make PDF files as small as possible. Because the contest judges will access these PDFs over the Internet, excessively large PDF files will take longer to become visible. The more time judges must spend waiting, the less time they will have to evaluate the content and the more impatient they will be when they do so. Smaller files will also upload more quickly when you submit your entries.

What file formats are accepted for uploading?

PDF files are preferred. JPGs (high resolution) are also allowed – so, if for some reason you don't have a PDF of the tearsheet you wish to submit, it would be easy to snap a high-resolution photo and submit the resulting photo file.

How do I extract pages from a full-issue or full section PDF?

In Acrobat, open the PDF file, then choose "Extract Pages..." from the Document menu and follow the instructions. This will allow you to save individual or sequential pages in separate files anywhere on your system.

How do I combine PDF pages or files into a single entry?

Open the PDF file that is to appear first in the entry, choose "Save As..." from the File menu, and save that file with the name you'd like to give the final PDF entry. Choose "Insert Pages..." from the Document menu, choose the file that is to appear next in the entry, then specify where that file should be inserted. When all insertions have been made, save and close the PDF file.

How do I make it clear which item on the page is my entry?

Please make sure your entry is obvious on the page. If you following the best practice file naming advice above, once in the online system you will be asked to include the Name of Entry. In this field please use the headline or the article, caption of photo, or business advertisement. Best practice: Match the name of the entry to the headline on the page in the Name of Entry field on the contest website.

What if my info is wrong or my paper is not listed online?

We have worked very hard to make sure the classes for each member are as accurate as possible, however if you note that your circulation is listed incorrectly, please contact Sandy DeBeer at sandy@sdna.com or 800-658-3697. Please note that circulations are based on 2019 South Dakota Newspaper Directory listing, not your current circulation.

Where can I get more help for anything I can't find here?

Call SDNA at 800-658-3697 or email sandy@sdna.com.
